Mistakes Lawyers Make

A 60-minute TeleConference for Summer Associates, Prospective and New Lawyers
Thursday, June 12, 2003, 1:00-2:00 pm EDT

Learning from your mistakes is smart;
learning from the mistakes of others is wise.

This program is designed to help summer associates, third-year hires and new lawyers anticipate and avoid classic mistakes, common missteps, and core misconceptions, including faulty assumptions, fundamental time wasters, and foundational ethics problems. Through the shared experience of others, aid lawyers to become successful contributors to any organization.

Moderated by Kathy Morris, long-time legal career counselor and director of the ABA Career Resource Center, with special participation by George Kuhlman, ABA Ethics Counsel and Associate Director of the ABA’s Center for Professional Responsibility, this TeleConference program features prominent faculty members with a range of practice experience and backgrounds:

- Burton Lipshie, Chair of the Professional Development Consortium, an international association for those in charge of lawyer training in large firms, and Managing Attorney of Litigation at Stroock, Stroock and Lavan in New York

- Sharon Jones, Managing Director of Fuse 3 Group, LLC in Chicago, specializing in consulting with large firms and companies on success strategies for their key professionals, based on her own rich background in large-firm, large-company, and law department environments

- Robert Major, Jr., Founding Partner of San Francisco-based Major, Hagen & Africa, a global attorney search firm, with first-hand, large-firm and in-house experience
