1. STATEMENT OF POLICY:

This policy outlines the definitions, responsibilities, procedures, and guidelines for the issuance and use of a Loyola Marymount University Purchasing Card.

3. POLICY/PROCEDURE:

   RESPONSIBILITIES:

Cardholder Responsibilities

Prior to receiving a P-Card the cardholder must attend a training session and must also read and sign the LMU Purchasing Card Cardholder Agreement. Full liability of payment for purchases made with the P-Card rests with the University, however the Cardholder is responsible for all purchases made with their assigned card. The Cardholder is responsible for obtaining necessary approvals before using the card to purchase goods or services and for following the guidelines for purchasing set forth below. Once a purchase is made, the Cardholder is responsible for confirming goods received, match the order, and retaining original documentation with the monthly statement for audit review of statement. Cardholders are responsible for safeguarding the card as if it were cash and must notify the bank immediately if the card is lost or stolen.

Approver Responsibilities

Approvers will be responsible for reviewing purchases for propriety and accuracy of the General Ledger Account on a monthly basis. Cards will be set up to post charges to default general ledger accounts for a respective department. However, approvers will have the responsibility to correct or change transaction coding within their department prior to the end of the monthly cycle. Charges may be split among several budget accounts within the department or with other departments. Only Cardholders and Approvers will have the authorization to split charges. Approvers are responsible for collecting P-Cards from cardholders who are separating from the University and returning them to the P-Card administrator. The LMU Purchasing Card Surrender Form should be completed and signed by the appropriate budget manager indicating receipt of the card from the separating Cardholder. Upon a Cardholder’s separation from the University it becomes the Approver’s responsibility to maintain the support documentation retained by the Cardholder.

Purchasing Card Program Team Responsibilities

The Purchasing Card Program Team (PCPT) is responsible for the ongoing maintenance of the program including responsibilities to:

- provide training to administrators and cardholders
- distribute the cards
- interact with the bank to add, change, and delete cardholders
- issue and update cardholder policy & procedures
• monitor purchases for compliance & propriety
• monitor the departmental approval of billing statements
• analyze purchase trends
• facilitate resolution of disputed charges

Program Administrator: Gunita Chopra, Controller’s Office (Westchester)
Marti Reynolds, Finance Suite (Law School)

P-Card Usage Guidelines

The P-Card may be used for any purchase in the normal course of business within departmental budget guidelines. Misuse of the P-Card may result in revocation of card privileges, disciplinary action, termination and/or criminal prosecution.

P-Card Limits

P-Card dollar and volume limits are tailored to the Cardholder’s expected use of the P-Card. Certain types of vendors and transactions are blocked as it has been determined that they would not apply to the University’s operations. Specific P-Card limitations will be explained to each cardholder in the course of cardholder training. Each P-Card will be classified in the system with a pre-assigned template number associated with a common transaction and monthly limit:

- #1........$250/transaction, up to $1,500/month
- #2........$1,500/transaction, up to $20,000/month
- #3........$2,500/transaction, up to $25,000/month
- #4........on a case by case basis

Procedures

3.1 P-Card Distribution & Activation

An employee may receive a P-Card upon approval from their Department Head and completion of the LMU Purchasing Card Application. The application and approval process can usually be accomplished within 5 business days.

3.2 General Instructions for Cardholders to Make a Purchase

- Place order and make purchase with preferred vendor (website, telephone, fax or on-site)
- Receive goods or services
- Review monthly cardholder statement within five business days of month-end
- Notify vendor of discrepancies; follow-up any credits or rebates due
3.3 Documentation Requirements

The department is responsible for maintaining records of every transaction made with the P-Card. These records must be reconciled to the monthly statement each billing cycle (30 days). The following items constitute proper documentation:

- Vendor supplied detailed list of items purchased
- E-mail orders, acknowledgements or confirmations which include vendor name, transaction date, detailed list of items purchased, dollar amount for each item and sales tax.

All supporting documentation must be attached to the monthly statement and signed by the Reconciler or Approver.

The statement and supporting documentation must be submitted to P-Card Administrator, Finance Suite, Founders Hall 125 the second week of each month.

3.4 Review of Expenditures

Each month the Cardholder is responsible for reviewing the expenditures charged to their P-Card. This review occurs on-line and is documented on-line. A business purpose must be entered on-line for each transaction. Transactions should be reviewed weekly. Cardholder and Approver are notified by e-mail that transactions are ready for review and approval.

3.5 Disputed Charges

Any charge that appears on the monthly statement may be disputed if it is an error. If there is a charge that is not recognized or appears to be incorrect, first contact the vendor and try to resolve the dispute. If an agreement cannot be reached, the Cardholder should go to the website (www.paymentnet.com) and complete a Disputed Charge form within 60 days of transaction date. The bank will then contact with the vendor and attempt to resolve this dispute within the billing cycle.

3.6 Returns, Credits, Exchanges & Rebates

It is the responsibility of the Cardholder to contact the merchant when merchandise purchased with the P-Card is received that is defective or incorrect. The Cardholder must arrange for a return for credit or an exchange.

If a return for credit is made, it is the Cardholder’s responsibility to obtain a receipt from the merchant and maintain this credit receipt with the original support documentation for the purchase. The refund must be credited to the same P-Card on which the original purchase was made. It is strictly prohibited for a Cardholder to accept a refund in the form of cash or check.

If an exchange is made, the Cardholder is responsible for returning the merchandise to the merchant and obtaining a replacement. Documentation supporting this exchange should also be maintained with the support documentation for the original purchase.
Cardholders may at times purchase items for which a manufacturer or vendor rebate is available. In this case, it is the responsibility of the department or Cardholder to follow the appropriate procedures to receive the rebate. No Cardholder or University Staff will be allowed to profit personally from a rebate. All rebates must be deposited with the University Cashier crediting the account charged for the original purchase.

It is preferred that rebate checks be payable to the University. If the check is payable to the purchaser, it must be endorsed to the University. Rebates in the form of certificates or gift cards must be returned to the card coordinator to be used for future purchases.

It will be the responsibility of the Approver to review any rebate activity when approving the Cardholders’ statements.

3.7 Lost, Stolen or Damaged Cards

If your P-Card is lost or stolen, notify the bank immediately by calling 1-800-270-7760. Representatives are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Next, notify the P-Card Program Administrator, Marti Reynolds at extension 1020. Your card will be immediately suspended to protect against unauthorized use and you will be supplied with a new card. If a card is found after being reported lost, the canceled card should be cut in half and both halves forwarded to the Program Administrator. If your P-Card is damaged, notify the program administrator and he or she will arrange to cancel your current card and issue a new card. Canceled cards should be cut in half and forwarded to the Program Administrator.

3.8 Returning the Card Upon Separation from the University

Prior to separation from the University, cardholders must surrender their P-Card to either their Approver or the Program Administrator. To release the cardholder from responsibility for the card, the Approver must complete the LMU Purchasing Card Surrender Form. When someone other than the Approver accepts the P-Card from the separating employee, s/he must complete this form and sign it. The separating employee should be asked to sign this form as well.

3.9 California Sales & Use Tax Guidelines

Although LMU is tax exempt on its income, all purchases made by LMU are subject to sales and use tax. Taxes should be included in the cost of all purchases; if erroneously not included in the purchase total, the tax liability will be calculated, accrued and charged to the cardholder’s general ledger account.
