CHARGES AND DROPPING CLASSES

Charges will be posted on the day prior to the beginning of classes. The total number of units for each student will be reviewed after the end of the Open Add Period and the following applies:

1. If a student makes changes to the class schedule prior to the end of the Open Add period and there is no change in the number of units the charges will remain the same.
2. If units were added by the end of the Open Add Period, the corresponding additional charge for Tuition and General Student Fee will be posted for the units added.
3. If units are dropped prior to the end of the Open Add period and the total number of units is lower than it was at the initial charge the Tuition and General Student Fee will be reversed at 10% penalty for the number of units dropped.
4. Charges for units dropped after the end of the Open Add Period will be reversed per the Tuition Liability/Refund Policy listed below.
